

The children have lost their dreidel. Can you help them find it? Try tracing the path several times with your eyes, and then your finger, before using a marker.

