

Find a way for these little groundhogs to come up out of their burrow in time for Spring. Trace with your finger first, and then with a marker or a pencil. Draw some other things under the earth; inside the burrow; and above the ground.

