D d

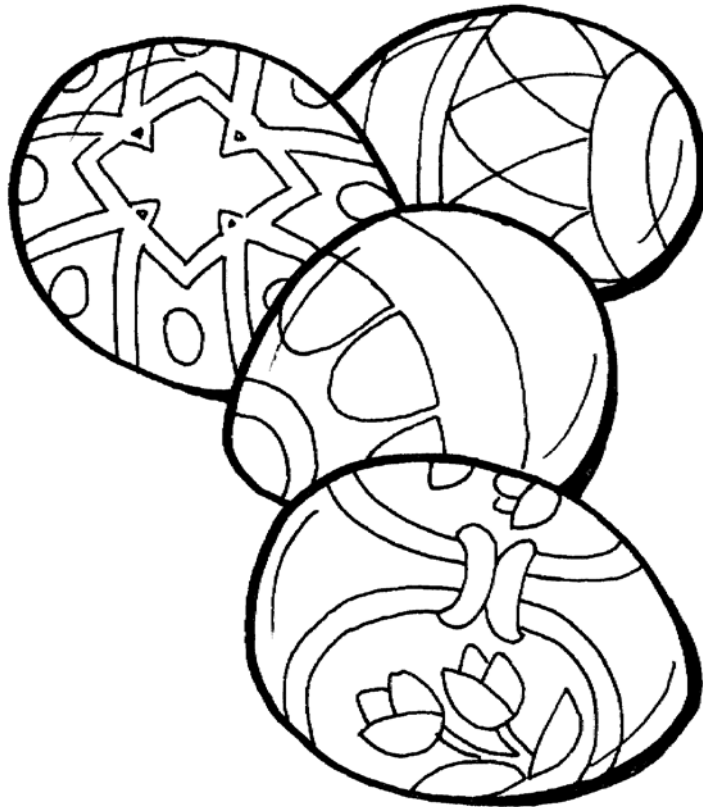

ducklings

Count the baby ducklings following this mother duck. Draw two more.

Spring Alphabet

---

E e

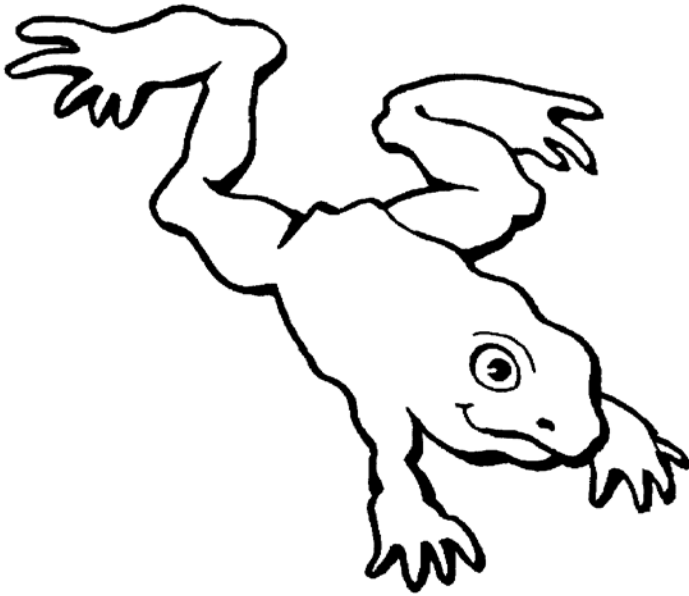

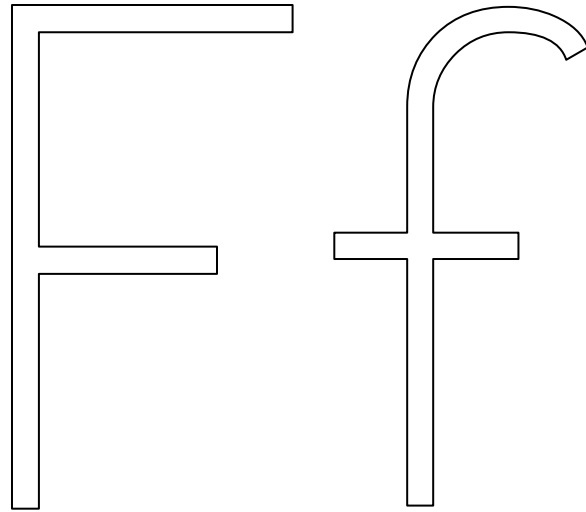

eggs

These eggs are decorated with colorful designs. Draw two more eggs and decorate them with designs.

Spring Alphabet

---

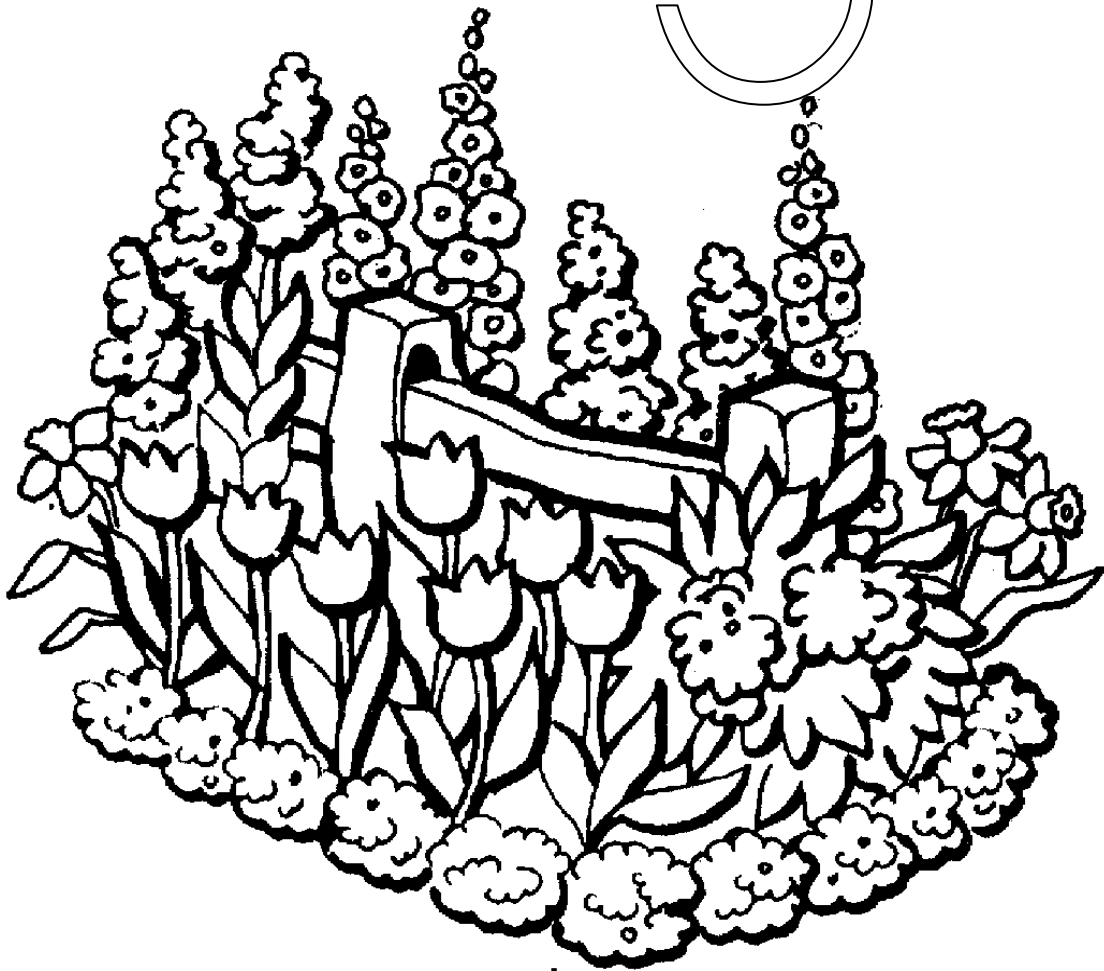

frog

This frog is jumping into the pond. Draw a HUGE splash!

Spring Alphabet

---

G g

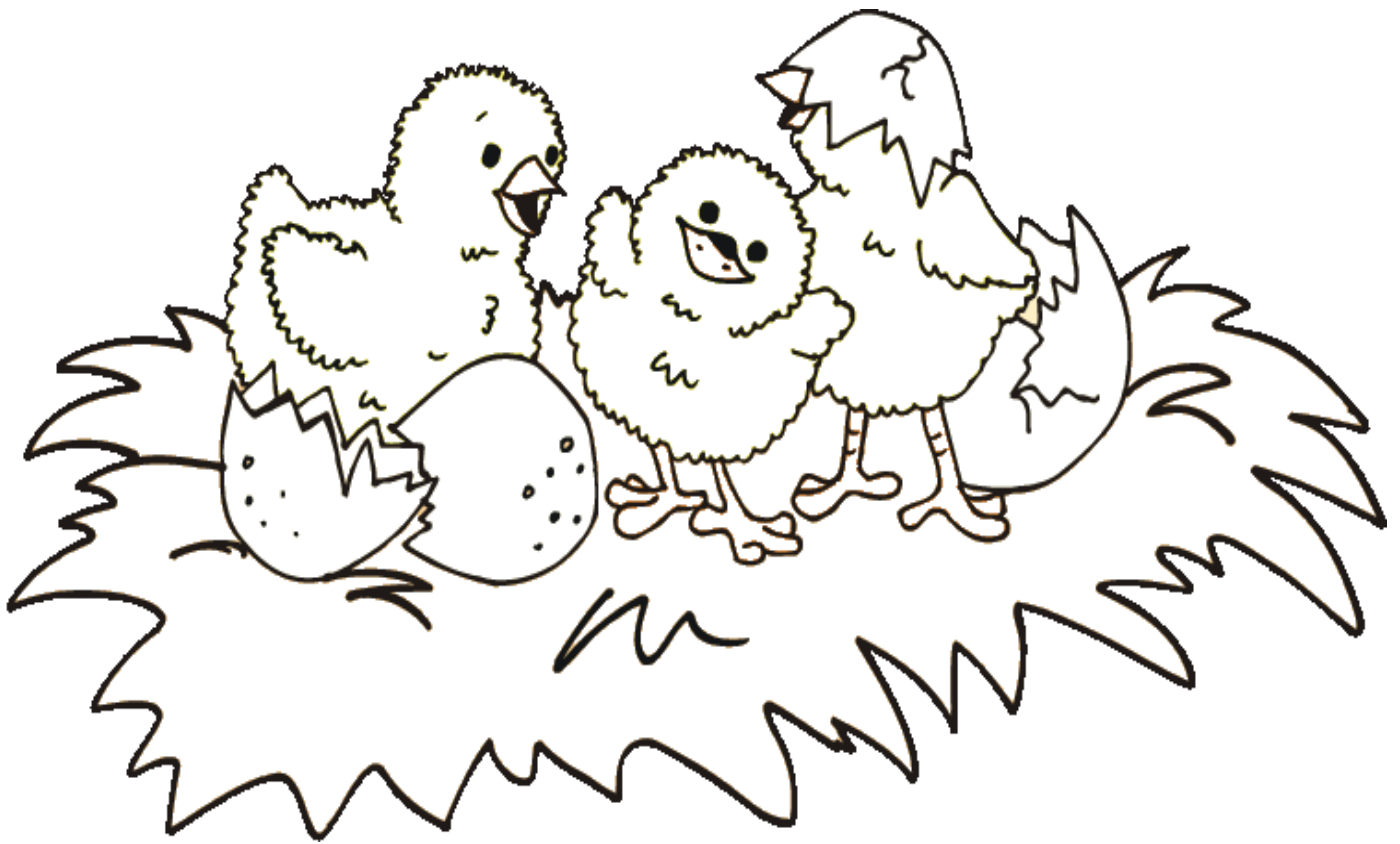

garden

Here is a spring garden. Draw some butterflies, bees and ladybugs enjoying the garden.

Spring Alphabet

---

H h

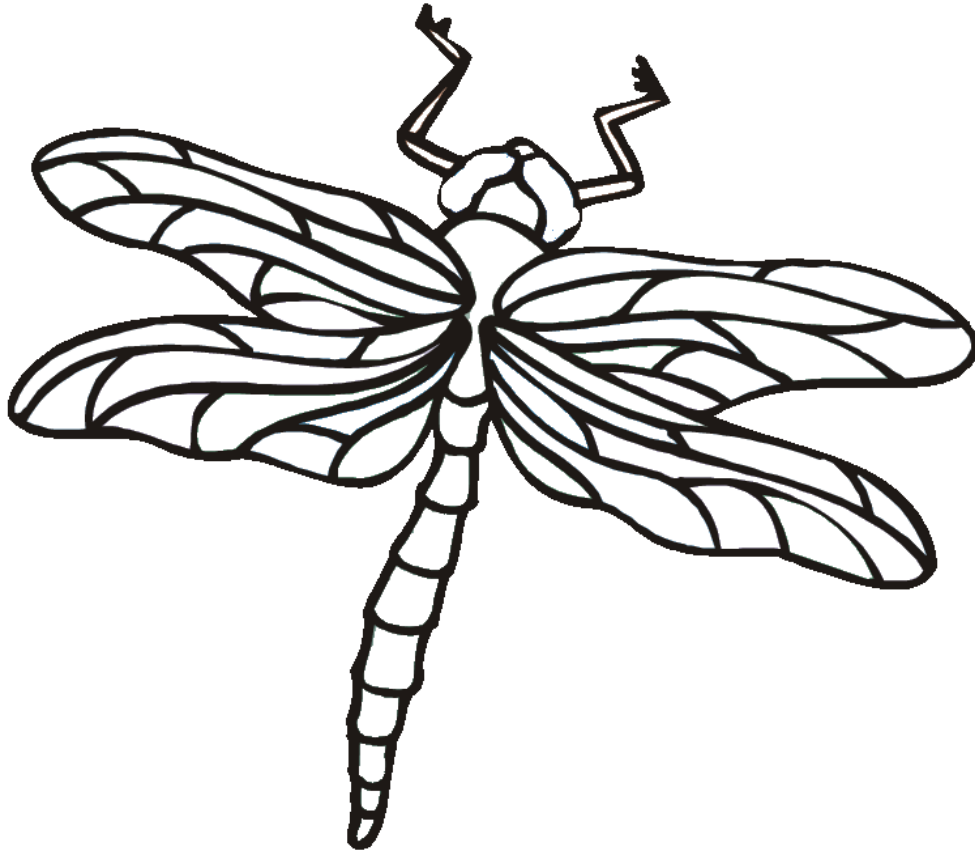

hatching

The baby chicks are hatching out of the eggs. What do you think they are saying?

Spring Alphabet

---

I i

iridescent

The dragonfly has iridescent wings. The wings look very delicate and shiny, and have colors of silver, magenta and turquoise blue.

---

Spring Alphabet

---

J j

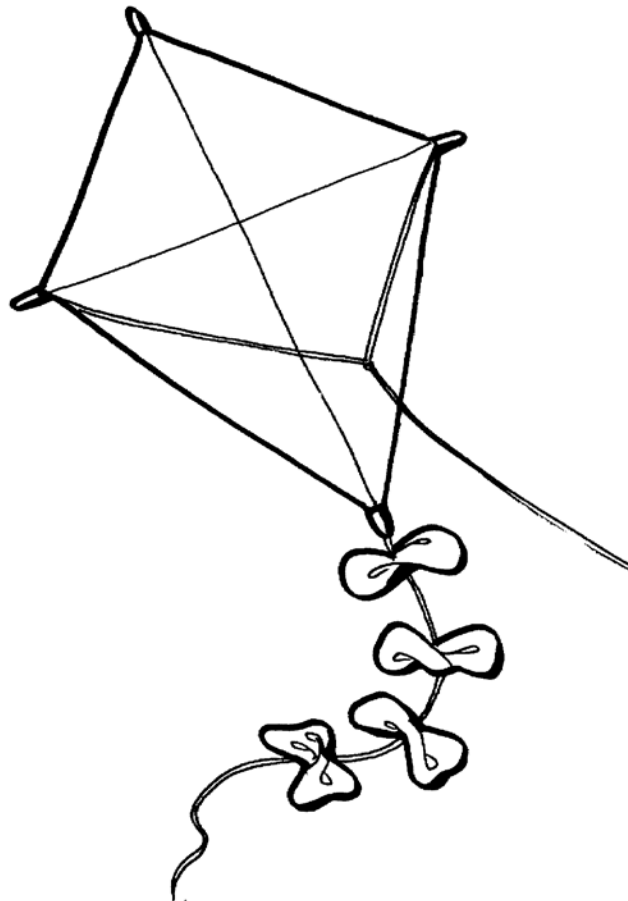

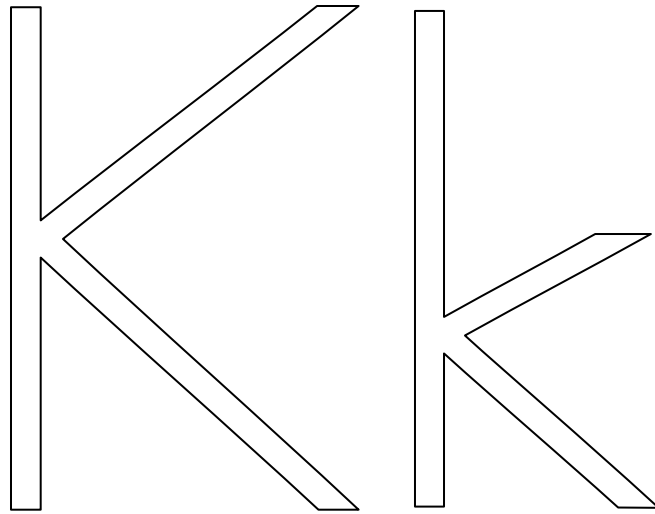

jump for joy

The children are jumping for joy because spring is here. Draw yourself jumping for joy too.

Spring Alphabet

---

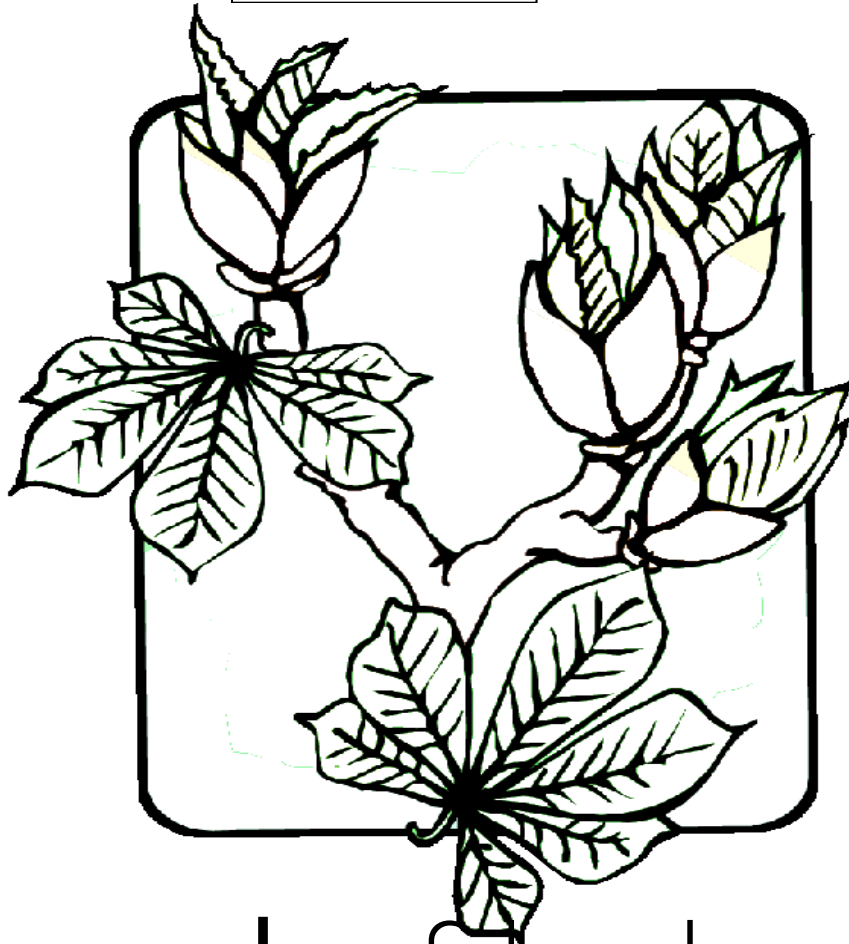

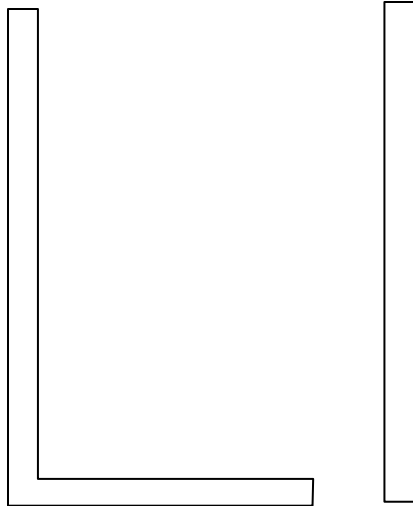

kite

Some of the days in spring are windy enough to fly a kite, and keep it up in the air. Make two more kites.

---

Spring Alphabet

---

leaf buds

You can tell that spring is here when you see leaf buds appearing on the trees. Soon they will grow bigger, and then open up into fresh new leaves.

Spring Alphabet

---

M M m

Maypole

In the old days, children and young people used to celebrate the arrival of spring by dancing around a Maypole.

Spring Alphabet

---

N n

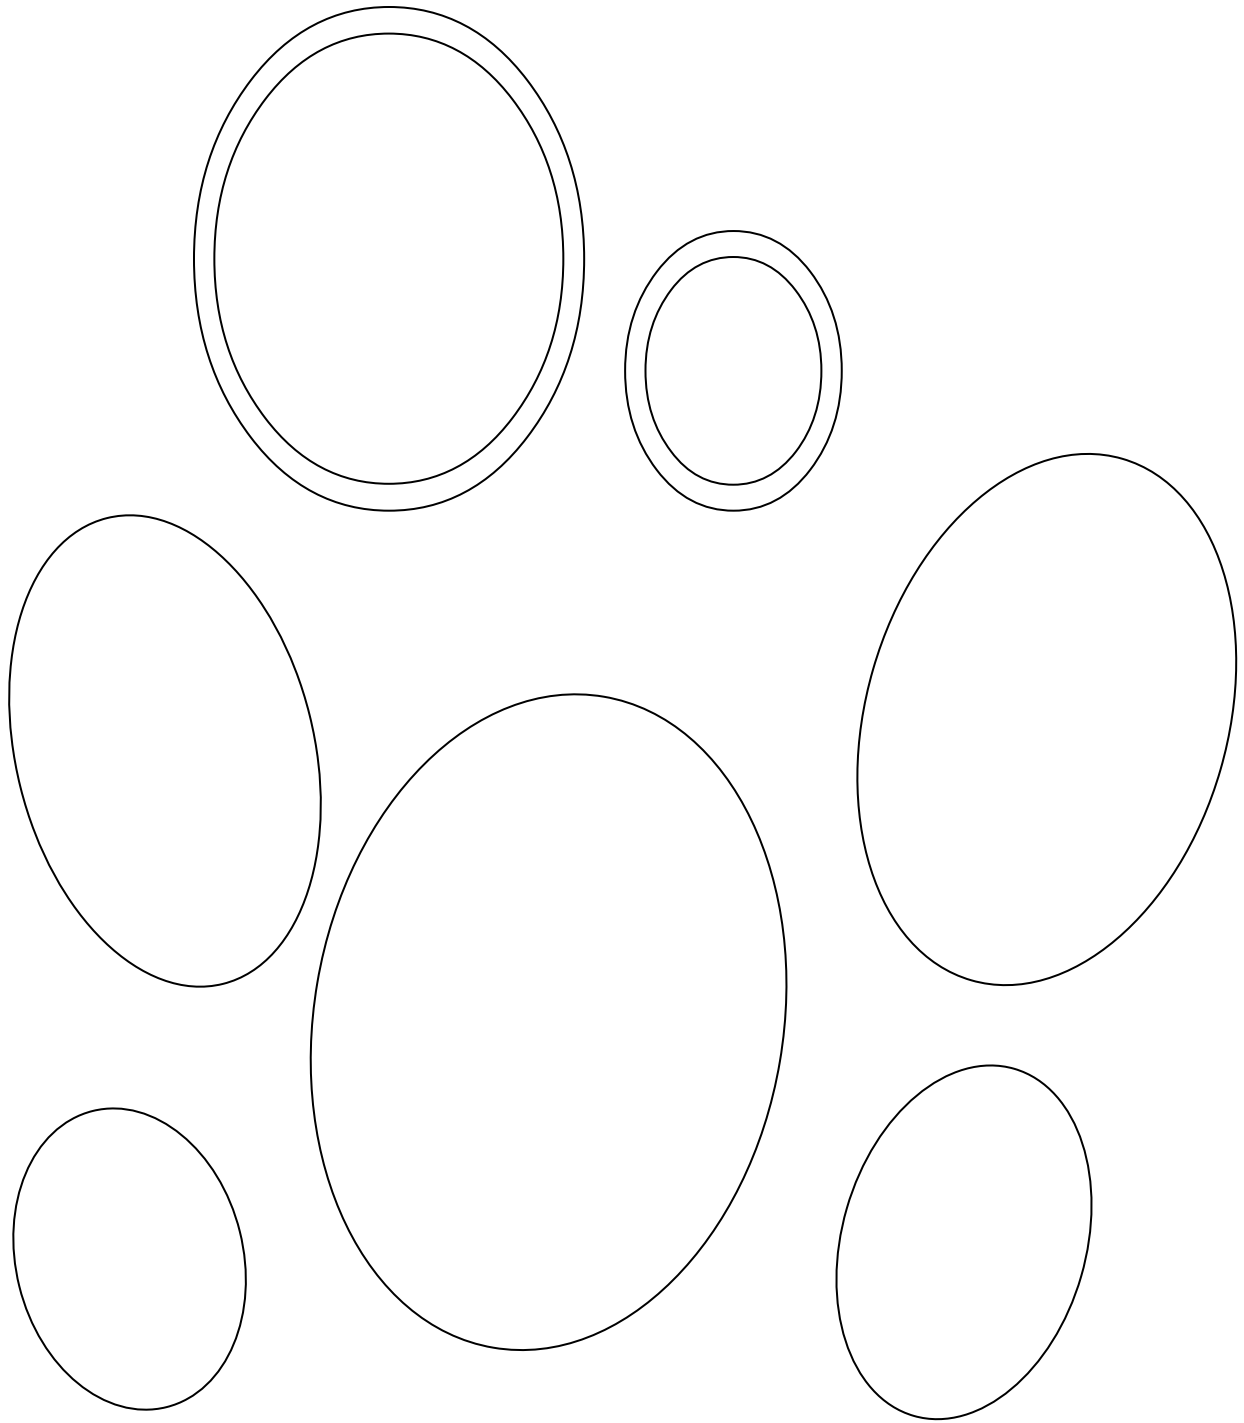

nest

Many new animals are born in the spring. How many eggs do you see in this nest? Draw a parent bird taking care of this nest.

---

Spring Alphabet

---

ovals

Do these oval shapes remind you of anything that you might see in the spring? Decorate the ovals the way that you think that should look.

---

Spring Alphabet

---

Pp

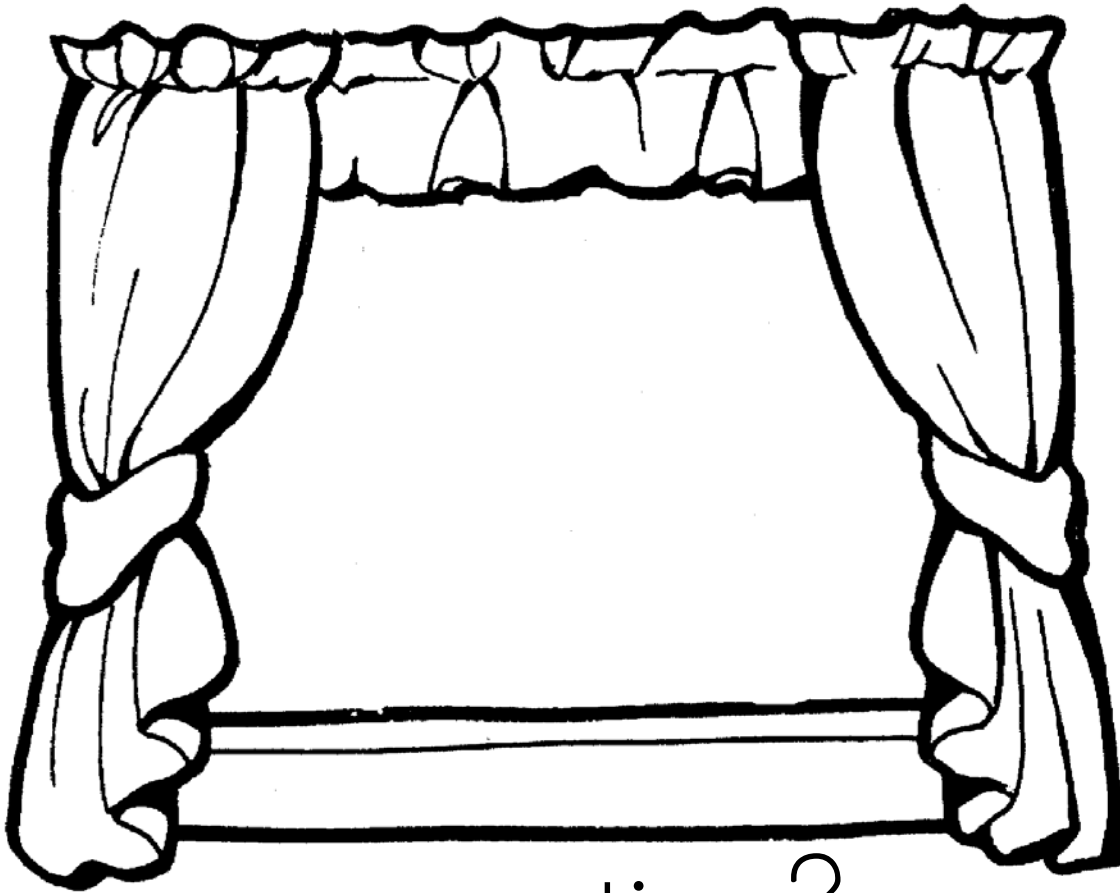

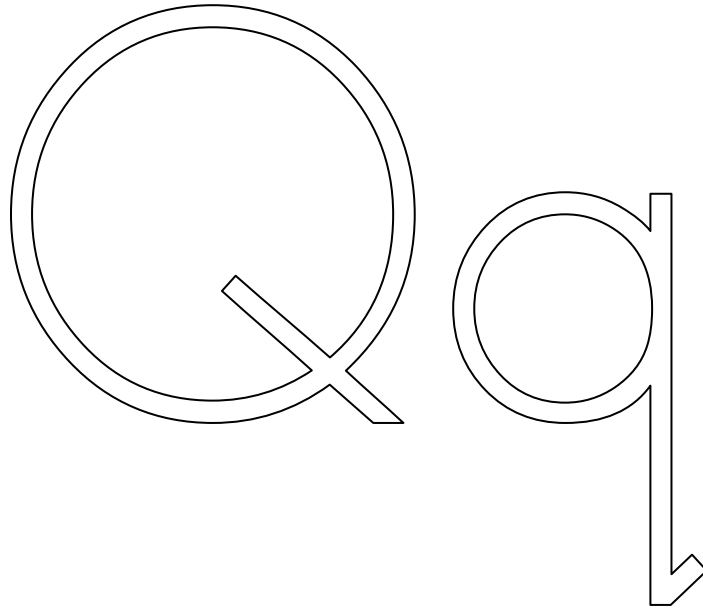

planting

Many people like to plant seeds in the spring, to grow flowers and vegetables.

Spring Alphabet

---

question?

I have a question for you. What can you see when you look out of your window that reminds you of spring?

Spring Alphabet

---

Rr

robin

When you see a robin in your yard, then you know that spring will be here soon. Draw a nest with some eggs in it.

---

Spring Alphabet

---

S s

seeds

We can plant seeds in the spring, and flowers and vegetables will grow. Draw ten more seeds.

---

Spring Alphabet

---

Do you like to smell tulips? This little rabbit does. Color one tulip purple, one tulip red, one tulip yellow, and one tulip pink.

Spring Alphabet

---

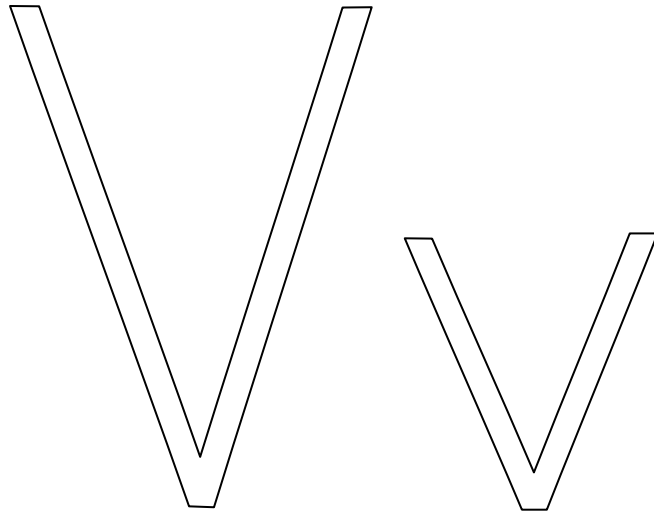

umbrella

It rains a lot in winter, but it rains a lot in spring too. When the sun shines on rain, it can make a rainbow. Draw a rainbow over the umbrella.

Spring Alphabet

---

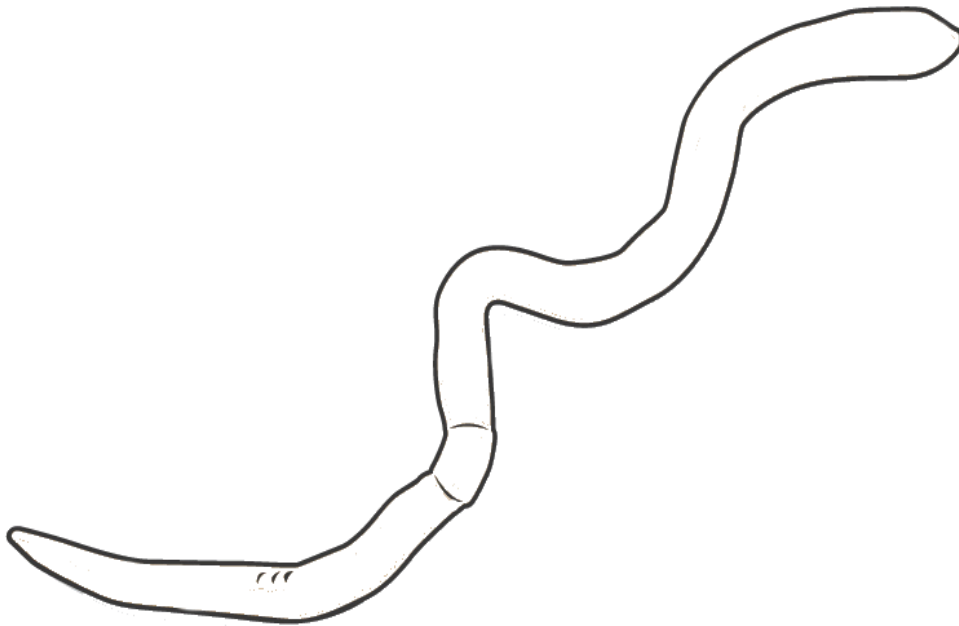

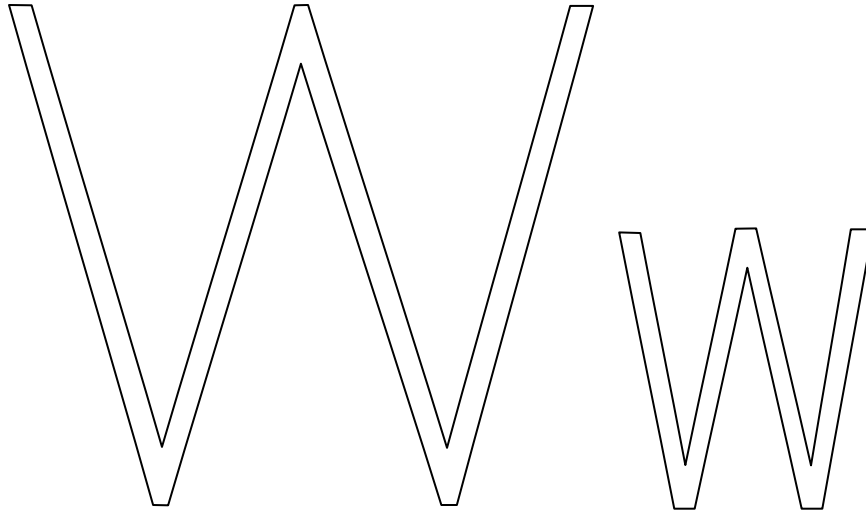

violets

Violets are small flowers that we often see growing in spring. Color these violets purple, with a yellow center. Draw some more violets.

---

Spring Alphabet

---

Worm

This is an earthworm. Draw some lines on its body to make segments. Worms crawl through the dirt and break it up, and it makes it easier for roots to grow.

Spring Alphabet

---

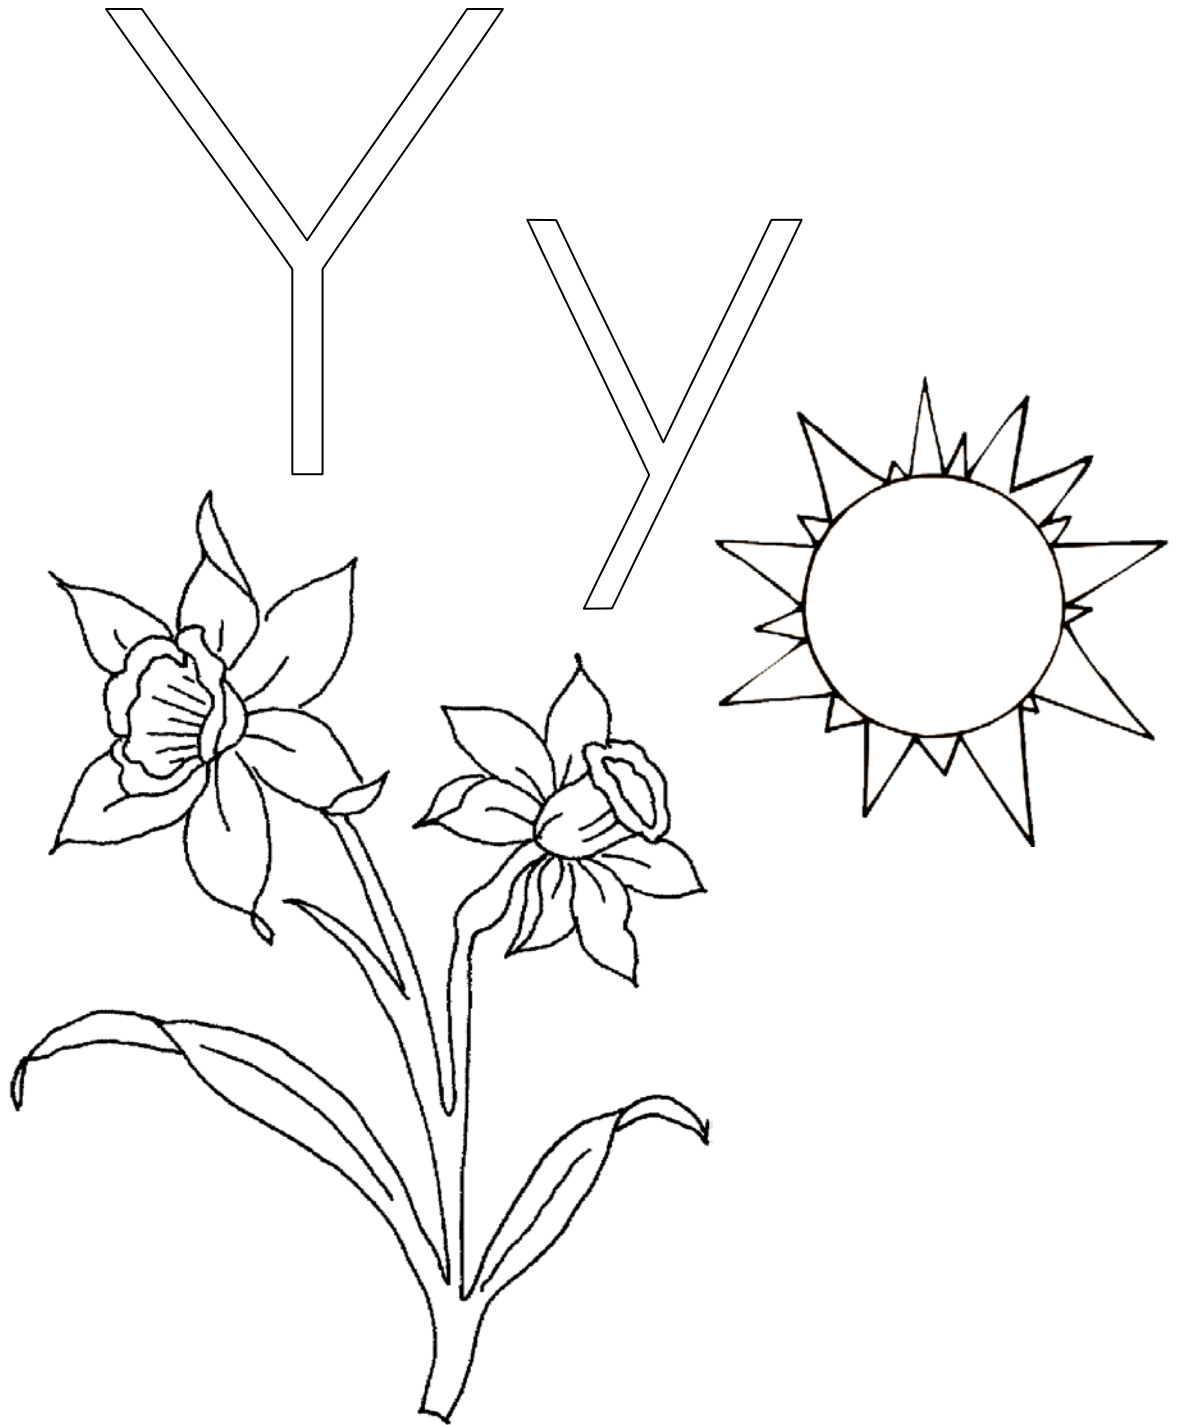

exit winter

We must say goodbye to winter, and say hello to spring.

Spring Alphabet

---

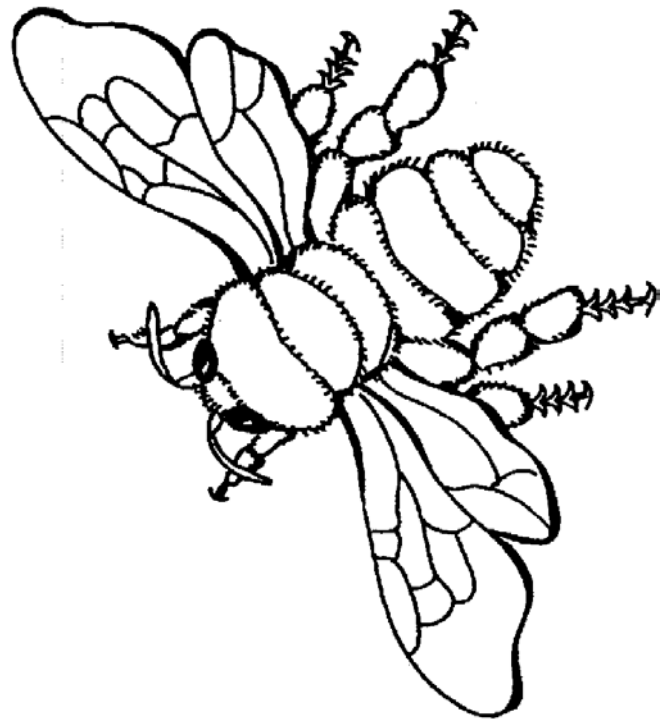

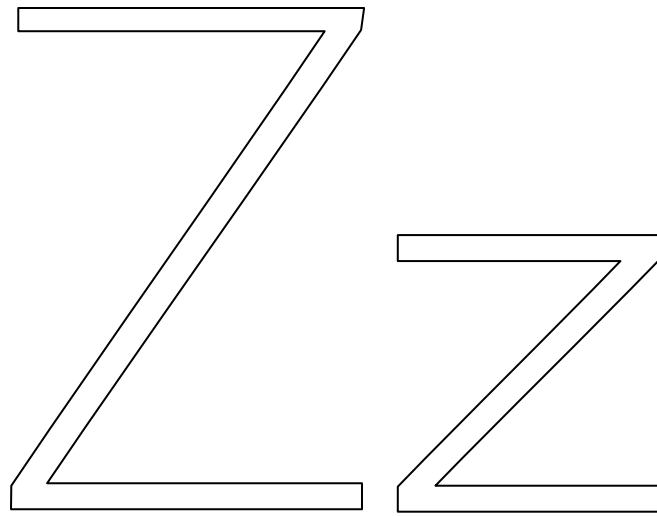

yellow

Daffodils grow in early spring. Color these daffodils and the sunshine yellow. Make some insects.

---
