

This is a set of wind chimes. It is hanging outside. When the wind blows, the ball in the middle hits the metal chimes, and each one makes a different musical sound, or tone. When the wind is blowing fast, the musical sounds are loud and fast. When the wind is blowing gently, the musical sounds are slower, and softer. Talk about how this set of wind chimes looks, and then draw a design of a different set of wind chimes.

