

Spider Poem

If I was a spider, I think I would be
As scary and hairy as I could be;
I'd hide under flowerpots, branches and such,
And I'd peek out a little bit, not very much,
I'd wait and I wait, until I saw you –
Then I'd leap right out in front of you,
And I would yell "BOO!"

